

Annette Gibbons

Deputy Minister

Department of Fisheries and Oceans and the Canadian Coast Guard

- On October 31, 2022, Annette Gibbons was appointed Deputy Minister of Fisheries and Oceans Canada (DFO).
- Annette is originally from Newfoundland and Labrador, with lots of family connections to the fishery.
- She has the privilege of being a public servant for many years, working in various departments, most recently at Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC), where she was Associate Deputy Minister since March 2021.
- She was very happy to be joining DFO and CCG. This department is foundational to Canada's past, present, and will be so important to its future. She is diving into all of the complex and fascinating files, and she looks forward to working with you all as we continue to support Minister Murray on her mandate commitments and priorities.
- Annette holds a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Ottawa, a Master of Arts degree in Public Administration from Carleton University, and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Memorial University.
