

Ms. Antonella Ferro

Director of Marine Navigation Programs

Canadian Coast Guard

- Antonella is the Director, Marine Navigation Programs within the Fleet and Maritime Services Directorate at the Canadian Coast Guard (CCG). Her team manages the operational and program policy work for Canada's marine navigation programs including marine communications and traffic services, aids to navigation, waterways management, icebreaking, and e-Navigation.
- Antonella joined the Canadian Coast Guard in 2000 as a Marine Communications and Traffic Services Officer and has more than 20 years of public service experience.
- Within CCG, Antonella has held roles with increasing responsibility including at the executive level and in various management roles within Maritime Security, Oceans Protection Plan (OPP) implementation, and Marine Navigation Branch.
- Antonella has extensive policy, operational, and program implementation experience. Antonella holds a Master of Public Administration from Lake Superior State University and a Bachelor of Arts Sociology/Criminology from the University of Windsor. S
- he also recently completed the National Security Programme at the Canadian Forces College in Toronto, Ontario.