

Mr. Jarle Hauge

Principal Engineer
Norwegian Coastal Administration

- Jarle Hauge has been engaged as Principal Engineer in the Norwegian Coastal administration in 2002. In his position he has been working on the technical development related to the Norwegian Maritime Services; AIS, VTS, Pilot and dGPS services and the Norwegian Maritime Single Window.
- Internationally Jarle Hauge is a national representative in the IALA ARM committee, and in previous years the e-Nav committee.
- He is also a member of the Norwegian delegation to the International Maritime Organisation (IMO).
- In the European Union he has been a national representative to EU Member State Expert groups working on the technical implementation of legislation related Maritime Single Window over the last 12-15 years.